Do you have any previous board service, leadership, or volunteer experience?

I am currently serving on the Library Board and have volunteered at the library for over 10 years. I am Treasurer for the Trinity Auxilliary of the Trinity Care Center in Round Rock and serve as Secretary of the women's organization at my church. I previously was on the Board of Faith in Action Caregivers of Pflugerville and continue to serve as a volunteer driver for Faith in Action Senior Access for Pflugerville and Round Rock.

As a long time volunteer at the library, I have learned about all the services offered by the library and how valuable the library and staff are to the people in the Pflugerville area. My service for the last two years on the Library Board has provided me insight and knowledge of the policies and procedures of the library.

What do you expect from us so that your experience is satisfying?

My experience as a Library Board member has already been satisfied and I can only imagine that such satisfaction will continue if I am selected to serve another two years. I look forward to working with the Library Director and staff as the library expansion is completed next year.
