

The background of the slide is a vibrant, stylized illustration of a suburban neighborhood. A wide, dark grey road with a white dashed center line runs from the bottom center towards the horizon. On either side of the road are green lawns with several green trees of varying sizes. In the distance, there are colorful houses in shades of orange, yellow, pink, and blue. To the left of the road, there is a playground with a red slide and a blue and yellow play structure. The sky is a light blue with soft, white clouds. The overall style is that of a children's book illustration or a community development graphic.
