

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION
DECLARING OCTOBER 11, 2016
AS "CAROLINE COLEMAN" DAY
IN THE CITY OF PFLUGERVILLE

Whereas, Miss Caroline Coleman, a seventh grade student at Kelly Lane Middle School, has had an interest in cooking since the age of three when she learned Polish food recipes from her grandmother; and

Whereas, Miss Coleman showed her culinary skills on the "Donut Sweat It" episode of Chopped Junior which aired on the Food Network on September 27, 2016, and faced the judges, chefs Alex Guarnaschelli and David Guas and NFL player DeMarcus Ware; and

Whereas, Miss Coleman put Pflugerville in the national spotlight by showing her mastery as a young chef on Chopped Junior and winning the competition as well as the coveted Chopped Junior Chef's Coat and cash prize; and

Whereas, Miss Coleman serves as an inspiration to others to pursue their dreams and also by giving to charity through the operation of her business, CC's Cupcakes, and by donating part of the profits to the Dell Children's Medical Center of Central Texas; and

Whereas, on behalf of all citizens of Pflugerville, the City of Pflugerville would like to congratulate Miss Coleman and to recognize her as the Chopped Junior Champion.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that I, Omar Peña, with the authority vested in me as Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Pflugerville, do hereby proclaim today as "Caroline Coleman Day" in the City of Pflugerville and hereby extend congratulations and best wishes to Miss Coleman for continued success in all her future endeavors.

In Witness Whereof, I cause the Official Seal of the City of Pflugerville to be affixed this 11th day of October, 2016.
