Pflugerville Public Library

Harlem Hellfighters: kYmberly Keeton, African American Community Archivist & Librarian for Austin Public Library's Austin History Center, shared the history of the Harlem Hellfighters, an infantry regiment of the New York Army National Guard during World War I and World War II, consisting of mostly African American troops.

Paint and Sip: Attendees: This 21 and up program is designed to give a break to adults and to let them explore their creative side. This month attendees enjoyed some wine and painted a mini chalkboard sign. All materials and wine were provided by the library.

Heritage House Museum: Heritage House Museum hosted a talk by Bill Harris, who worked for LBJ. His behind the scene stories show a different side of the 36th President of the United States. Also on display were personal photographs of LBJ and family, as well as other related items.

ⁱ The fiscal year runs from October 1st through September 30th
