personal stories of those who witnessed and survived the attacks. Told across 14 posters, this exhibition includes archival photographs and images of artifacts from the Museum's permanent collection.

Library virtual craft: Hanging felt flower display - Be crafty and get ideas for your own projects, featuring a different laser-friendly material each month. This virtual version of Laser cutter craft will provide materials and video tutorial for a craft prepped by the library laser cutter.

Twenty-somethings Book Club - Young adults ages 18 to 29 are invited to join our new online book club. Meet online to discuss a new YA book each month. This month we will be discussing LORE by Alexandra Bracken.

Mini-Art Show Viewing - Check out the submissions by local artists for our Mini Art Show! Stop by the Great Hall (near the entrance) and see the items up close before they go in our display case in October.

Texas Book Festival - Pflugerville Public Library has received a Texas Book Festival grant in the amount of $2,500. These funds will be used to enhance the library's Juvenile Graphic Novel collection. Graphic novels and manga for young readers have exploded in popularity and are increasingly a good source of diverse and inclusive books. Thank you so much, Texas Book Festival!
