Pflugerville Police Department receives transparency award from Measure Austin.

On Wednesday, March 7, 2018 the Pflugerville Police Department was recognized by Measure Austin for transparency with the launch of the new digital crime map. The map allows residents to view the types of calls received by the Police Department which can be sorted by date, location and type of crime. Check out the map at www.pflugervilletx.com/crimemap.

Measure Austin is an Austin-based not-for-profit research and public education organization which seeks to advance groundbreaking research and education to improve local agency functionality and community needs. Find out more information on the organization at www.measureaustin.org.
