Back to school safety reminders presentation.

As students go back to school, it's important to remember to be watchful for Pflugerville youth. The Pflugerville Police Department will provide an overview of suggestions to make your commute to school safer and remind everyone about the laws pertaining to cell phones and school zones. The city's "Watch out for our Kids" video is out on PFTV and social media to remind parents about cell phones in school zones and to watch for students. The Pfreeze Pflugerville program will also resume with back to school.
