

City of Pflugerville

Legislation Text

File #: 2022-0839, Version: 1

Approving a Participating Agency Agreement between the Capital Area of Texas Regional Advisory Council ("CATRAC") and the City of Pflugerville for participation in the U. S. Health and Human Services, the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response ("ASPR"), Hospital / Healthcare Preparedness Program ("HPP"), and authorizing the City Manager to execute same.

CATRAC, as the Performing Agency (defined by Texas Department of State Health Services "DSHS"), has been awarded funds for the Hospital / Healthcare Preparedness Program on behalf of trauma service areas (TSA) L, M, N, and O (of which Travis and Williamson Counties are included in TSA O).

CATRAC, in accordance with DSHS contractual requirements, shall be responsible for all planning, implementation, and fiduciary activities; including, but not limited to the implementation of critical benchmarks, planning, coordination with regional response partners, execution of the HPP work plan, distribution and expenditure of HPP funding, equipment, and supplies within TSA L, M, N, and O. CATRAC staff will provide support for the region's planning and decision-making processes. CATRAC will work with all applicable regional planning and response partners to fulfill HPP work plan.
